

Rocky Mountain Tactical Team Association

Course Title: Basic TEMS / Rescue Task Force - Active Shooter Victim Response

Course Dates: May 3rd 2016, 0800-1700 (Academic Classroom / Skills session)
May 4th 2016, 0800-1700 (Academic Classroom / Practical Field Day)

Course Location: RMTTA Tactical Conference, The Ranch Loveland Colorado

Course Description:

Day 1- Classroom portion of Tactical Combat Casualty Care standards, Care Under Fire, Tactical Field Care Phase, Skills with tourniquets, wound packing, Chest Seals and Airways.

Day 2- Half day Blast injuries, Active Shooter Medical Concepts and Triage, Staging and ICS discussion pertaining to working with local emergency responders and half day of off-site movements with active shooter scenarios

Required Course Equipment:

- 1) SWAT or Duty uniform
- 2) Leather Gloves
- 3) Appropriate clothing for any weather
- 4) Medical Gear or pack currently carried, all medical training equipment will be provided during the course
- 5) Camelback or min. one liter water bottle
- 6) Eye and Ear protection

Instructor Bios:

Lead Instructor: Sheena Bledsoe

Sheena has over 10 years of experience in EMS. While working in EMS she has functioned as a front line paramedic, Field Instructor and lieutenant. She has been actively involved with education programs during her time and currently instructs at the college level with regards to EMT courses, Paramedic courses and Tactical Combat Casualty Care courses. Currently Sheena is a Lieutenant with a large EMS agency in Northern Colorado that runs an average of 19,000 calls per year. Sheena has been involved with SWAT and TEMS teams for over 8 years. Sheena is currently active with Greeley Police Department and Weld County Sheriff's Department SWAT teams.

Assistant Instructor: Dave Wiles

Officer Wiles has been a paramedic since 1993. He has served in many roles such as FTO, supervisor and a member of the TEMS unit. Officer Wiles has been part of law enforcement since 1996 serving as ACT instructor, less lethal munitions instructor, chemical munitions instructor and explosive breacher. Officer Wiles is currently employed by Greeley PD serving as the head ACT instructor and a Team leader for the SWAT team.