

Instructor Methodology

South Metro Fire Rescue

May 7 & 8, 2018

South Metro Fire Rescue is hosting an Instructional Methodology class on Monday May 7th & Tuesday May 8th, 2018 from 09:00 to 17:00 at the South Metro Training facility located at: 17801 East Plaza Drive, Parker, CO 80134.

Todd Hennessy and Joe Sims from South Metro Fire Rescue will be instructing the 16-hour course covering; Role of the Instructor, Safety, Legal Considerations, Psychology of Learning, Public Speaking, and Instructional Delivery.

Students are encouraged to read the IFSTA Fire and Emergency Services Instructor book, prior to class! The student must attend both days to obtain a certificate of completion.

This class will count as the initial Instructor Methodology course as set forth by the Colorado Division of Fire Safety for the Fire Instructor I level.

This class does not provide a State of Colorado Division of Fire Safety written or practical exam for Instructor I. The class does provide the opportunity to meet other instructors in the emergency service field, and create lessons plans.

There is a fee of $150 for the course. Light breakfast included!
