

Fire-Rescue
International
IAFC's Conference & Expo

August 7-10, 2019
Atlanta, GA

Incident Safety Officer & Health Safety Officer Training Courses

The International Association of Fire Chiefs' Safety, Health and Survival Section (SHS) in cooperation with Fire Department Safety Officers Association (FDSOA) will host two pre-conference training courses at Fire-Rescue International (FRI) in Atlanta, GA, August 5-6, 2019

Pre-conference events

INCIDENT SAFETY OFFICER | Monday, August 5 - Tuesday, August 6

The FDSOA Incident Safety Officer (ISO) course is a two-day academy that is based upon the 3rd Edition of Dave Dodson's Incident Safety Officer and the 2015 NFPA Standards 1500, 1521, and 1561.

TOPICS INCLUDE

Reading smoke

Reading firefighters

Reading buildings

Reading risk and reading hazards

HEALTH SAFETY OFFICER | Monday, August 5 - Tuesday, August 6

The FDSOA Health and Safety Officer (HSO) course is a two-day academy that is based upon the 4th Edition of James Angle's Occupational Safety and Health in the Emergency Services and the 2015 NFPA Standards 1500, 1521, and 1561.

TOPICS INCLUDE

Risk management

Safety program development & management

Relevant OSHA and NFPA standards

Safety program evaluation.

Pro Board Certification Exams will be available after the classes on Tuesday, August 6.

REGISTRATION

ISO $495/per student

HSO $495/per student

Registration Includes

Complimentary membership for one year to:

- IAFC and SHS Section (up to $450 value)
- FDSOA ($99 value)

For more information and to register visit: IAFC.org/SpecialtyEdu

Registered students may purchase the required reading material in advance through FDSOA at a reduced cost of $85. Reading material is available for purchase at: FDSOA.org/shop

Register Today!

IAFC.org/FRI

