Boulder Police Department-Training Room
1805 33rd Street, Boulder, Colorado, 80301

Registration is Now Open

The Foothills RETAC and Boulder County are sponsoring a mass casualty incident (MCI) tabletop exercise on January, 29, 2020, from 8:00am–12:30pm. The exercise will be conducted at the Boulder Police Department Training Room.

Parking is located on the west side of the building and you will enter on the east side of the building. There will be posted signage to navigate you to the training room.

Exercise Goals:

The goals of the exercise are to facilitate discussion among response agencies to validate, coordinate, and deconflict current MCI planning in Boulder County.

Target Audience:

All agencies having a role in responding to mass casualty incidents are encouraged to participate.
