Training at Estes Valley Regional Training Center
640 Elm Road, Estes Park CO 80517

In this 1-Day Firefighter Survival course the student will learn from instances during past fatalities and arm themselves with an increased skill set in firefighter survival. Skills that will be accomplished are: MAYDAY transmission, wall breaching, the naked SCBA drill, reading couplings, disentanglement, skip breathing, reorientation techniques, headfirst ladder bailouts and rope slide.

In an imminent life-threatening situation, physiological changes occur. Let's not find ourselves in a situation that can be easily remedied - only if we knew the proper technique.
