Keynote Speakers

FLC features the perfect mix of fire service presenters and national leadership speakers that you won't hear at other conferences.

Networking Opportunities

With all your meals and networking events included, FLC has built in many times and a variety of places for you to sit down and share ideas with your colleagues and peers.

Education

FLC is home to the LEAD Series certificate program, tailored to the unique needs of Company Officers and Chief Officers, in addition to the Fire Marshal Symposium. These programs equip participants with tools and strategies to excel in their current roles while preparing them for future leadership opportunities.
