Cost: $100.00 (additional $76.00 if you need a book)

The curriculum for this course is derived from the IFSTA textbook Fire and Emergency Services Company Officer (5th Edition). The book is required. Additionally, the course features modern thoughts on strategy and tactics, leadership philosophies and practices, management and Human Resources challenges. The course is appropriate for the new or seasoned Officer, or even those looking to promote.

This course will include the creation of JPR Books for the practical components of certification, and makes use of simulations for many of the tasks needed.

Pre-Course Work: Those accepted will receive an email with detailed instructions

Prerequisites: Colorado Firefighter II, Fire and Emergency Services Instructor I

Seating is very limited, and the current open seating is available on the SAFD website. A wait-list will be opened if registrations exceed available slots.
